All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us.

2 Corinthians 5:18-20

You are an ambassador for Christ!

What Are the Qualities of an Effective Ambassador?

- 1. Knowledge – an accurately informed mind

  - 2. Wisdom – an artful method

  - 3. Character – an attractive manner

Knowledge – An Accurately Informed Mind

Knowledge
of
the truth

Knowledge
error

Knowledge of the Truth

We have to know the King's message

“Retain the standard of sound words which you have heard from me, in the faith and love which are in Christ Jesus. Guard, through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us, the treasure which has been entrusted to you.”

2 Timothy 1:13-14

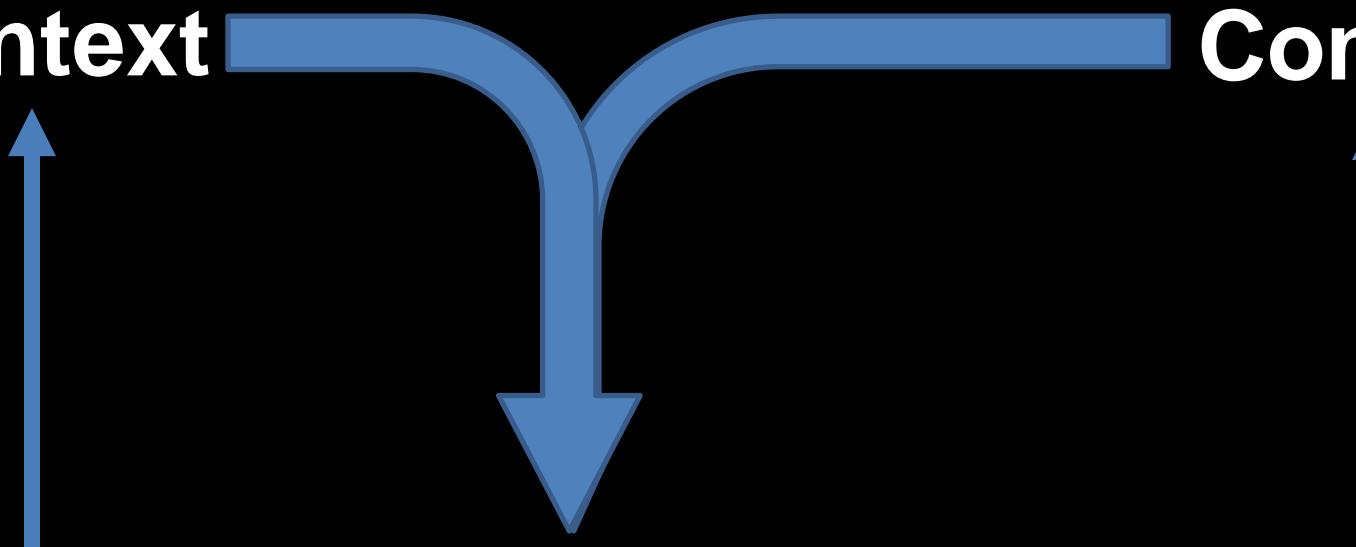

The context, more than anything, determines the meaning of the smaller unit of text.

“buck”

“I got a buck”

“While hunting, I got a buck and brought it home in my truck.”

“If you want, I got a buck and can buy that candy bar for you.”

Context Context

“While hunting, I got a buck and brought it home in my truck.”

“If you want, I got a buck and can buy that candy bar for you.”

When We Ignore Context...

- Psalm 14:1 “There is no God.”
- 2 Kings 9:20 “He drives like a maniac.”
- Luke 19:27 [Jesus speaking] “But those enemies of mine who did not want me to be king over them—bring them here and kill them in front of me.”
- Ecclesiastes 10:19 “Wine makes life merry and money is the answer to everything.”

Follow a simple rule:

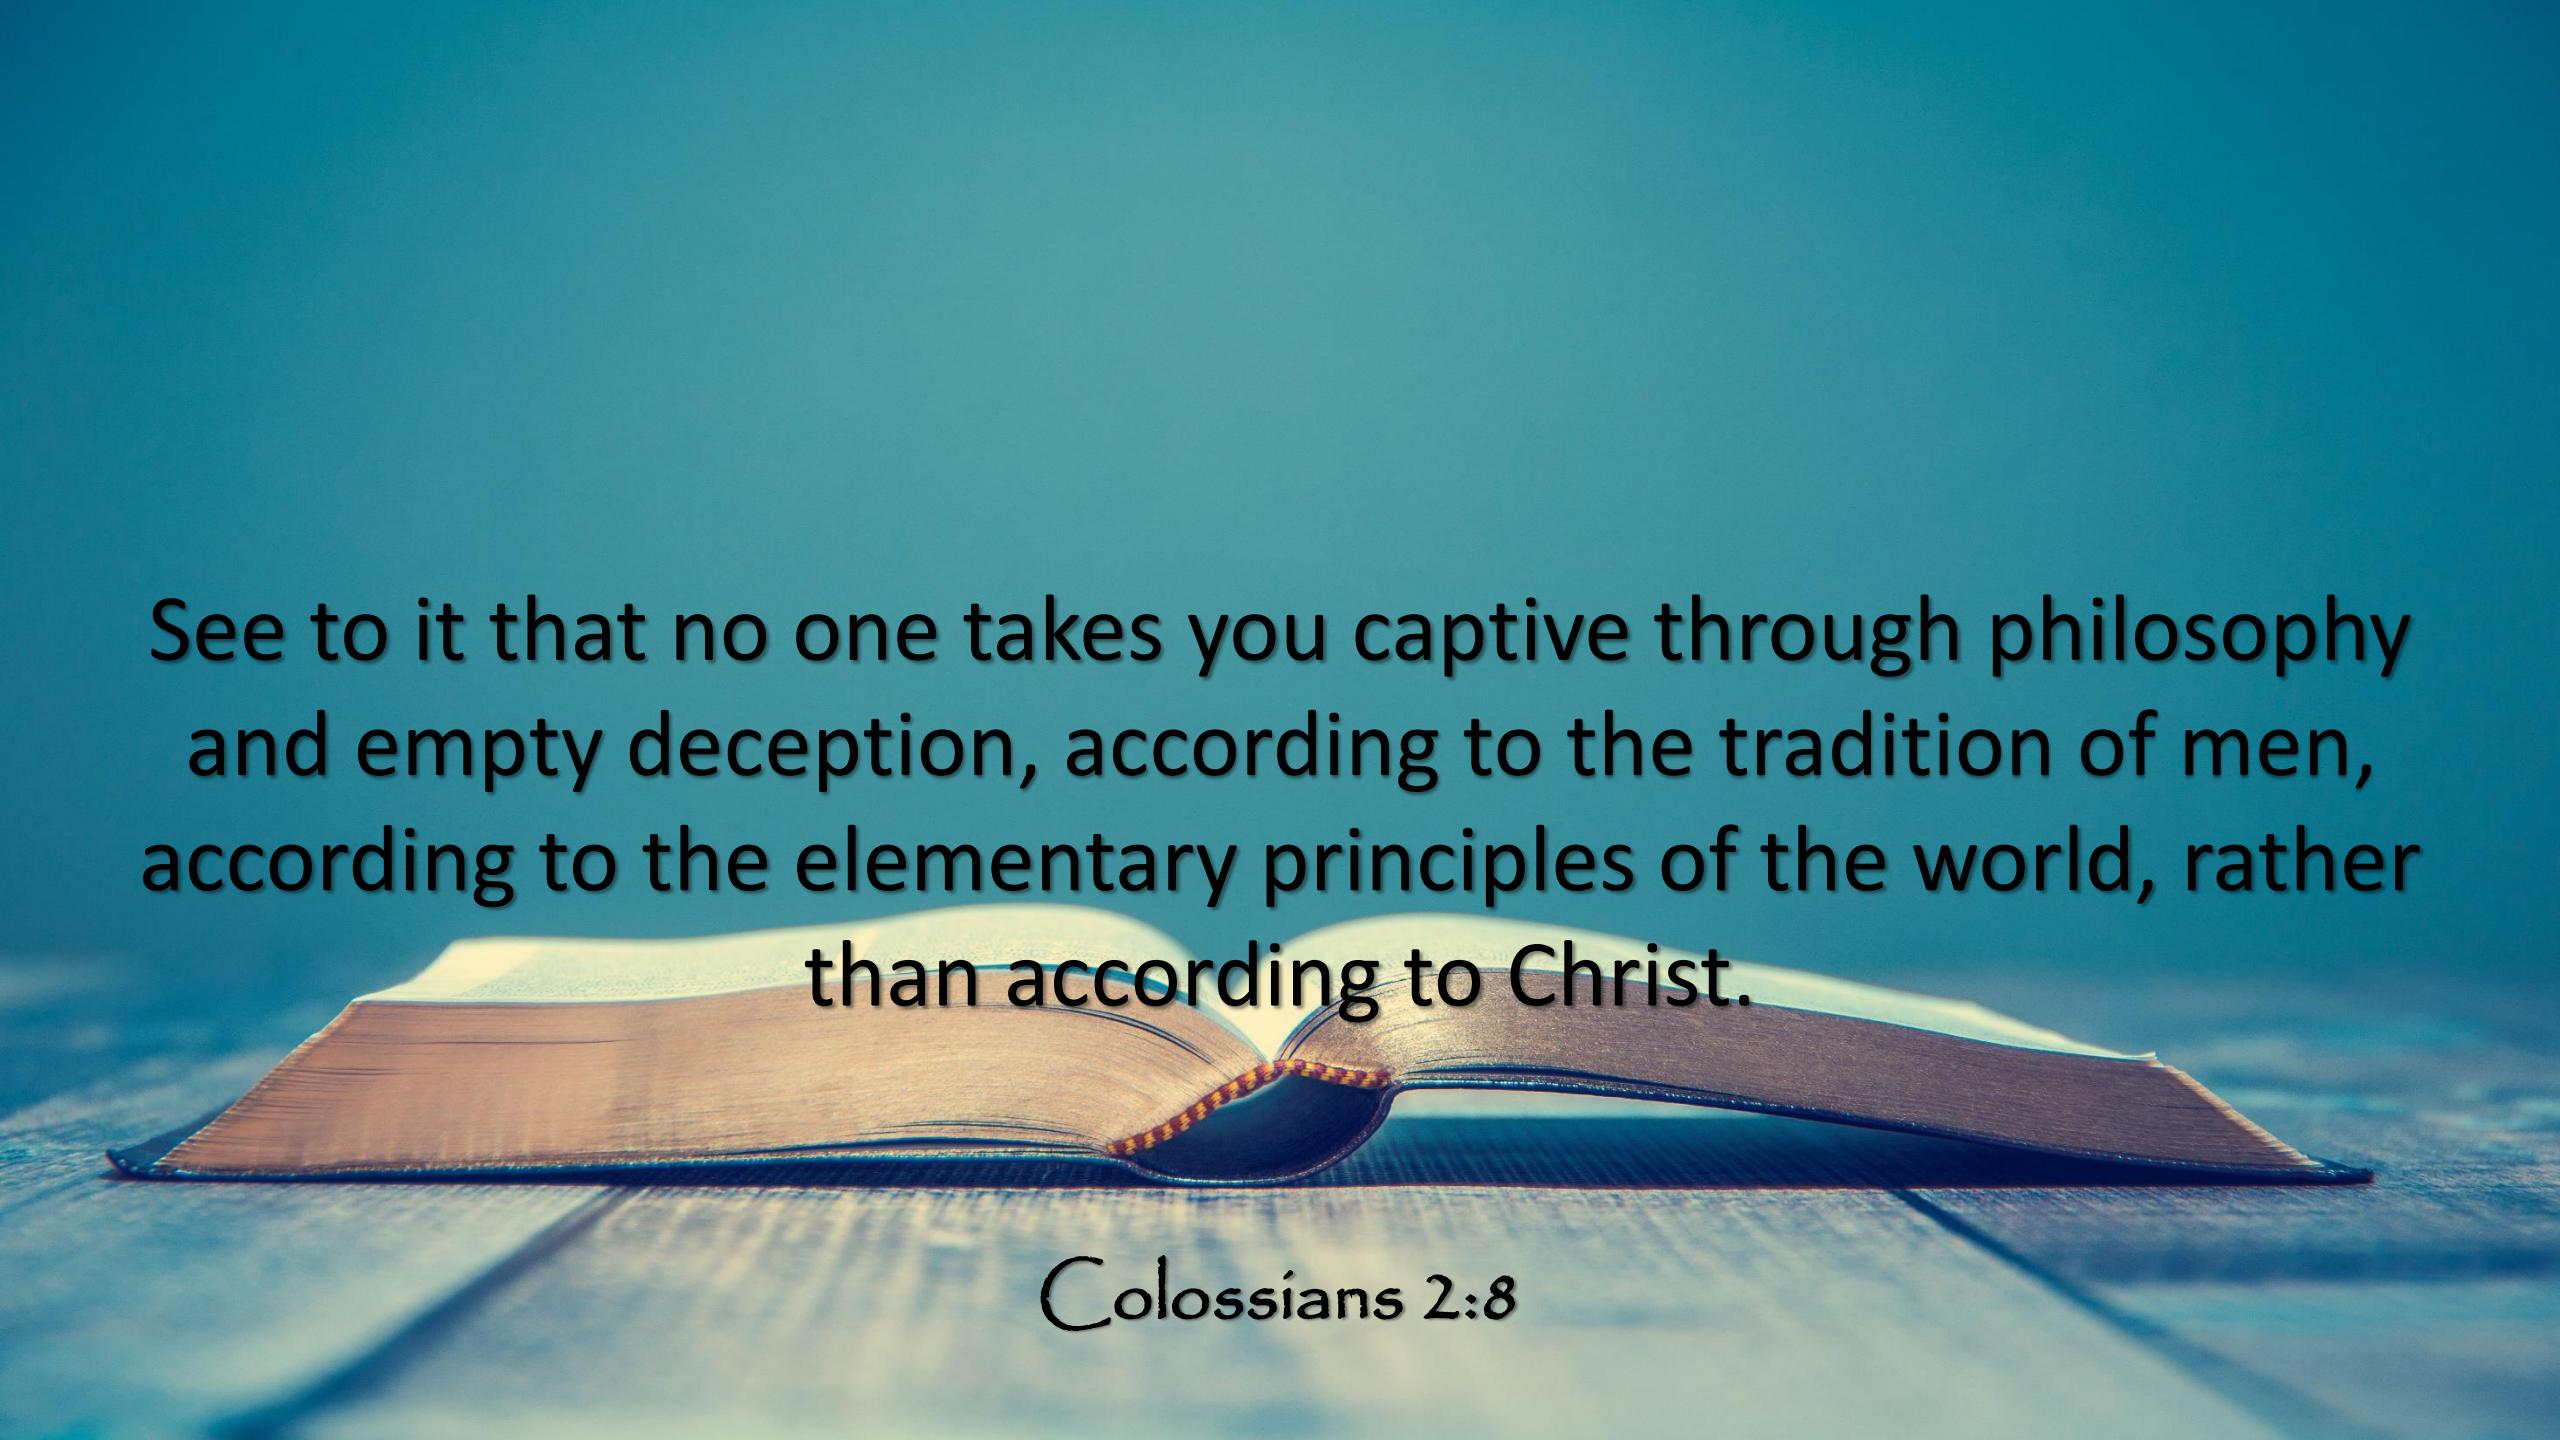

Never
read
a
Bible
verse!

Knowledge of the Error

We must know the false ideas to destroy them.

See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deception, according to the tradition of men, according to the elementary principles of the world, rather than according to Christ.

Colossians 2:8

A blue book with gold lettering and a red cover is positioned horizontally across the bottom of the slide. The book is slightly open, showing its pages. The background of the slide is a solid teal color.

For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God.

2 Corinthians 10:3-5

J. Gresham Machen

“False ideas are the greatest obstacles to the Gospel. We may preach with all the fervor of a reformer and yet succeed only in winning a straggler here and there, if we permit the whole collective thought of the nation or of the world to be controlled by ideas which...prevent Christianity from being regarded as anything more than a harmless delusion.”

The Wrong Approach

1. Ridicule the idea / ignore the idea
2. Throw Bible verses at it (or at people).

This leads to isolation.

The Right Approach

1. We should inoculate, not isolate.
2. Teach about false ideas.

This leads to inoculation.

	Who are we?	What is the fundamental problem of humans?	What is the solution to that problem?	What is our duty?
Critical theory
Biblical worldview

Francis Schaeffer

The basic problem of the Christians in this country in the last eighty years or so, in regard to society and in regard to government, is that they have seen things in bits and pieces instead of totals...

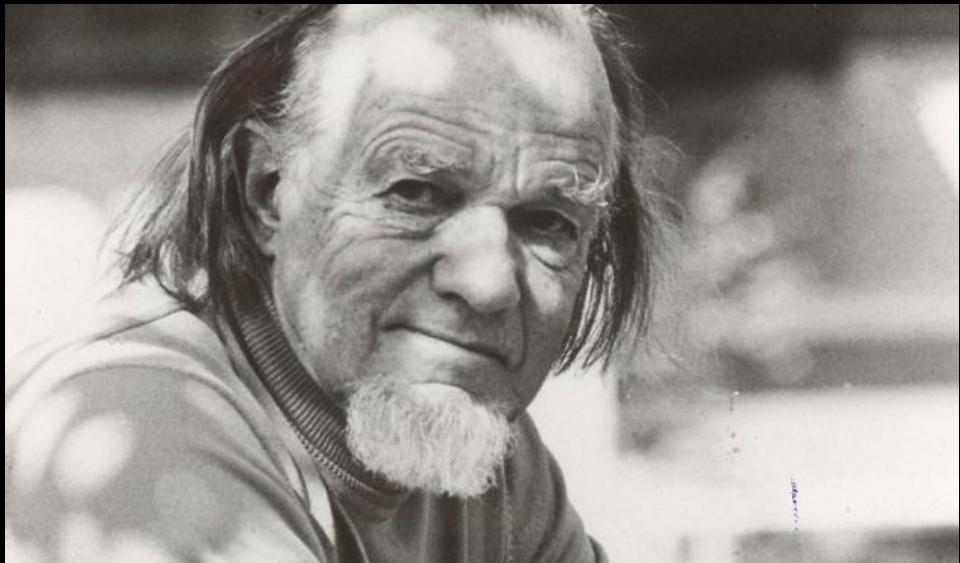

Francis Schaeffer

They have very gradually become disturbed over permissiveness, pornography, the public schools, the breakdown of the family, and finally abortion. But they have not seen this as a totality—each thing being a part, a symptom, of a much larger problem...

Francis Schaeffer

They have failed to see that all of this has come about due to a shift in world view—that is, through a fundamental change in the overall way people think and view the world and life as a whole....

Francis Schaeffer

What we must understand is that...world views really do bring forth with inevitable certainty not only personal differences, but also total differences in regard to society, government, and law.

Wisdom: An Artful Method

1. Conversational tactics
2. Making your message clear

Making Your Message Clear

- Present the truth in a clear and unambiguous way.
- Use terms that are intelligible to the listeners.

“Christian-eeze”

If you believe in Jesus... If you don't believe in Jesus...

“Do you believe people who commit moral crimes ought to be punished?”

“Have you ever committed a moral crime?”

Character

An Attractive Manner

A mature expression of virtue, warmth, and personal depth

Two extremes to avoid:

1. We're so nice we won't say anything that could possibly offend anyone.

2. We don't care what anyone thinks so we offend everyone.

“And the Lord’s bond-servant must not be quarrelsome, but be kind to all, able to teach, patient when wronged, with gentleness correcting those who are in opposition, if perhaps God may grant them repentance leading to the knowledge of the truth..”

2 Timothy 2:24-25

Character in Conversation

Three Powerful Phrases

1. “I could be wrong.”
2. “I sympathize with your concern.”
3. “That’s a good point (or reasonable objection).”

Character at a Restaurant

Three Rules

1. Learn the server's name and use it.
2. Leave a good tip.
3. Find your server and thank him/her before you leave.

Character When You Disagree

Three Examples to Soften Your Response

1. “I wouldn’t characterize it that way. What about...?”

2. “Let me suggest an alternative and tell me if you think it’s an improvement.”

3. “I’m not sure I agree with the way you put it. Think about it this way...”

Character self-assessment activity

The Gospel is offensive enough.

Don't add any more offense to it.
