Trans 101 Training and Conversation

Tumbleweed invites you to attend Trans 101!

Join Shawn Reagor of the Montana Human Rights Network for a training about how to be an ally for the transgender community. Shawn transitioned from female to male in college, has worked with the trans community for 7 years - 3 of which while he lived in Billings, and has worked to defeat anti transgender legislation in both Montana and Alaska.

The training includes what it means to be transgender as well as common language and definitions, experiences that community members often face, commonly asked questions, and tips for working and interacting with transgender and gender diverse people. Information will be presented through a combination of personal stories, graphics, and statistics.

WHEN: December 5th, 2019, 3:30-5:30 PM

WHERE: United Way of Yellowstone County, 2173 Overland Ave.
